Video production—for DVD, for the web, for television...for you.

What do you need?

- Marketing pieces
- Corporate video
- Video training tools
- Video-based programs and products
- Documentary features

What can we do for you?

- Producer/director
- Scriptwriter
- Production coordinator
- Field producer
- Project manager

HiJinx Productions brings a hefty tool kit to the table: budgeting, scripting, project management, crew coordination, and more. We work closely with clients to define the project scope, then we build a lean and realistic budget that will hold up throughout the project. HiJinx Productions has the flexibility and production industry contacts to bring the right crew to the project team, and the experience to tackle copy and script writing with ease. Whatever you need, just ask. HiJinx Productions is up to the task!
